Big sales at In Vogue and La Rousse, plus special deals for Lucky readers. By Kathy Schultz

the best places

around-the-clock beauty

These salons and spas cater to busy lifestyles, so you can squeeze in an appointment without feeling pressed for time.

Early-Morning Blowout

The Jeremy Todd Wellness

Spa & Salon (411 University St., 206-262-9000) usually opens up at 10 AM, but call a day in advance and the staff will gladly arrange for a haircut ($49 to $96) or styling ($45 to $86) as early as 7 AM. It also offers plenty of glam extras like makeup application.

Evening Manicure

After a long day at your desk, drop by Spa Noir (2231 Second Ave., 206-448-7600) for a Rejuvenation Manicure. The 50-minute session includes a neck-and-shoulder massage, a warm paraffin wrap, and a meticulous polish ($50). It's open daily until 10 PM.

SALON DEWI

Lunchtime Facial

Salon Dewi (1525 14th Ave., 206-381-3482) has a menu filled with 30-minute express services—including an aromatherapy skincare package and a revitalizing eye treatment ($50 each)—all of which will leave you glowing and back at work before anyone notices your absence.

After-Hours Stress Relief

Instead of heading to a debaucherous happy hour to unwind, spend an ultra-soothing evening at Banya 5 (217 Ninth Ave. N, 206-262-1234). This peaceful, Russian-style spa has hot and cold pools, a Turkish steam room, and a parilka (dry sauna) room. It's now open until 11 PM Tuesday through Saturday. Entry is $30.
